ASSENTED-TO MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL TIME TO FILE BRIEFS

Now come respondents Jeffrey Shields, Joel Wetmore, and Charles Peavy through counsel and request that this Court allow them an additional 7 days to file briefs raising constitutional challenges to the sexually dangerous person statute, 18 U.S.C. § 4248. The briefs are presently due on May 7, 2007; the defendants request that they be allowed to file the briefs on May 14, 2007. In support of this request counsel state that they require the additional time to prepare the briefs due to the novel nature of the issues presented and very heavy caseloads. In addition, defendants anticipate receipt of a discovery response from the government that could have implications for the content their briefs.

The government has assented to this request.
